

MCTP 2009: SCHEDULE JUNE 15-17

Monday, June 15: Visit Santa Fe Institute

8:30 a.m. Leave Albuquerque from UNMs A-lot, just east of the bookstore. We have 6 drivers (Nicole, Walker, Weston, Kasra, Ryan, Monika).

10:00 a.m. Arrive at Santa Fe Institute, Introduction and tour by Ginger Richardson, VP for Education and Outreach
Location: SFI lobby

10:30 a.m. SFI overview by Geoffrey West, President and Distinguished Professor,
Location: SFI Noyce Conference Room

11:00 a.m. Research presentation by Yves-Alexandre de Montjoye, Visiting Researcher, Catholic University of Louvain The Effect of Cities: Selection vs. Adaptation?
Location: Noyce Conference Room

11:30 a.m. Research presentation by Nathan Eagle, Omidyar Fellow Scaling of Human Behavioral Data from 102 to 108 Bits
Location: Noyce Conference Room

12:00-1:00 p.m. Lunch at SFI.

1:00 p.m. Depart for St. Johns College.

1:30-2:45 p.m. Presentation by Jessica Flack (Regulation) at Complex Systems Summer School, St. Johns College

3:00 p.m. Departure from St. Johns College.

Note: Please remember to bring $ 10 for lunch and anything you may need to return home. The 6 drivers will get refunded for mileage.

After our visit to SFI you can return to Albuquerque or visit Santa Fe, a beautiful NM city with many nice museums, shops and restaurants. You may want to consider taking the train back ($6 one way, $8 day pass, leaves Santa Fe at 4:10pm, 5:17pm, 6:18pm, 8:15pm, 9:30pm, website:<http://www.nmrailrunner.com>).

Tuesday, June 16: Visit UNMs HPCC

10:30am High Performance computing Center, 1601 Central Avenue (Central and Pine St NE). Tim Thomas, Professor and HPC Deputy Director, will give us a Tour of HPC and CREATE lab and show us their satellite image- processing operation and research projects.

Wednesday, June 17: Visit Los Alamos and LANL

8:00 a.m. Leave Albuquerque from UNMs A-lot, just east of the bookstore. Same 6 drivers.

10:00 a.m. Meet at LANL's Bradbury Science Museum at 1350 Central Ave, Los Alamos

10:00-11:40 a.m. Visit Museum

11:45 p.m. Lunch at Viola's (124 Central Park Sq, across from Museum)

1:00-4:00 p.m. visit LANL (details TBA)

4:00 p.m. leave LANL for Bandelier National Monument

4:15-6:00 p.m. visit Bandelier

6:00 p.m. leave Bandelier National Monument, return to Albuquerque Note: Please remember to bring enough $ for lunch and entry to the park ($12/car) as well as gas.